

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

COLTON J. NOVASCONE,

Plaintiff,

vs.

DANIEL DANAHER, P.A., N.D.C.S.;

Defendant.

8:19CV201

MEMORANDUM AND ORDER

This matter is before the court on Plaintiff's motion (filing 20) seeking the appointment of counsel. The court cannot routinely appoint counsel in civil cases. In Davis v. Scott, 94 F.3d 444, 447 (8th Cir. 1996), the Eighth Circuit Court of Appeals explained that "[i]ndigent civil litigants do not have a constitutional or statutory right to appointed counsel." Trial courts have "broad discretion to decide whether both the plaintiff and the court will benefit from the appointment of counsel, taking into account the factual and legal complexity of the case, the presence or absence of conflicting testimony, and the plaintiff's ability to investigate the facts and present his claim." Id. Having considered these factors, the request for the appointment of counsel will be denied without prejudice to reassertion.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that: Plaintiff's Motion for Appointment of Counsel (filing 20) is denied without prejudice to reassertion.

Dated this 9th day of December, 2020.

BY THE COURT:

Richard G. Kopf
Senior United States District Judge
